NAS LEMOORE INSTRUCTION 5510.6E

From: Commanding Officer, Naval Air Station, Lemoore

Subj: RANDOM VEHICLE INSPECTIONS

1. Purpose. To establish procedures for the performance of random vehicle inspections onboard Naval Air Station Lemoore in order to ensure the maintenance of good order, security, discipline, and command readiness.
2. Cancellation. NASLEMINST 5510.6D
3. Background. The Commanding Officer, Naval Air Station Lemoore, is responsible for the maintenance of order, security, discipline, and command readiness and may establish reasonable random vehicle inspection procedures to aid him in carrying out this responsibility. A program of random vehicle inspections will occur at designated times and places on-station to combat potential problems relating to drug introduction, theft, and sabotage, among others.
4. Authority. The authority to direct the Security Officer to perform random vehicle inspections at times and places designated by the Commanding Officer and using procedures directed by the Commanding Officer rests solely with the Commanding Officer.
5. Action. The Commanding Officer shall periodically direct the Security Officer to perform random vehicle inspections at those times and places chosen by the Commanding Officer. The Commanding Officer shall consult with the Station Judge Advocate concerning the procedures to be used in performing these inspections and shall direct that the Security Officer follow such procedures. The Security Officer shall report to the Commanding Officer the results of each inspection period.
